Senior personnel

Managers: persons in an enterprise or organization who primarily direct a department or subdivision. They supervise and control the work of other supervisory, professional or managerial staff. They have the authority to hire or dismiss personnel, recommend their hiring or dismissal or take other personnel action such as promotion or leave authorization. They exercise discretionary authority over day-to-day activities. Does not include first-line supervisors unless those supervised are professionals, nor employees who primarily perform tasks required for the provision of the service.

Executives: persons in the organization who primarily direct the management of the organization. They exercise wide latitude in decision-making and receive only supervision or direction from high-level executives, the board of directors or stockholders. They do not directly perform tasks related to the provision of the service(s) of the organization.

Specialists: persons in an enterprise or organization who possess knowledge at an advanced level of expertise and who possess proprietary knowledge of the organization's services, research equipment, techniques or management. Independent professionals may be included in this category.
